

Computing

Vector Drawing: using different tools to create images.

Variables in Games: understanding variables and using them in games.

Art

Screen Printing

Exploring a range of printing techniques.

DT

Creating sustainable items.

PSHE

Human reproduction and how bodies change.

Keeping safe

Literacy

Shackleton's Journey – William Grill

Exploring character development, emotional responses and changes of setting in a narrative referencing a true historic event.

Rose Blanche – Roberto Innocenti & Ian McEwan

Examining a child's experience of World War 2.

Maths

- Decimals – decimals as fractions, rounding, ordering and comparing, converting fractions to percentages, understanding fractions as percentages and decimals, addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.
- Problem solving with fractions and decimals.
- Measures – kilometres, kilograms, millimetres and millilitres, metric and imperial units, converting units of time.
- Volume, area and perimeter.

Science

Animals Including Humans

- Understand the key stages of human foetal development.
- Identify the key physical and emotional changes during puberty.
- Explore mental and physical aspects of ageing.
- Know how bodies stay healthy.
- Identify and describe the human heart and circulatory system.

Religious Education

Exploring the key question:

How does Tawhid create a sense of belonging in a Muslim community?

Topic (World War 2)

- Understand why the war started.
- The Home Front (with an emphasis on children's experiences of the war)
- Dunkirk and the Battle of Britain.
- Anne Frank and the Holocaust.
- How the war ended and how it was celebrated.

Spellings

- Adverbs of time
- Adding suffixes to words ending in -fer
- Words with silent letters
- Words spelled with ie after c
- Synonyms and antonyms

Enterprise & Endeavour

Physical Education

Striking and Fielding Skills

Athletics (Aspire)

French

Places in a town

Months and seasons

Summer 1 Beacon Class 2022